> Graham's Magazinef has been, from its establishment, more than any other, the favorite periodical of the people of the United States. It is distinguished from other publications of similar aims by the literary and artistic merit of its conteuts. While those of other works are unknown and anonymous, the contriputors to this are the most eminent anthors of our age and country the very creators, founders, of our National Literature. It may safely be asserted' that Graham's Magazine has regularly eugaged a better corps of writers than any other magazine; rhat since its establishment it has been the pioneer in magazine literature; and that the contributors of Graham have, by their able contributions, given a higher national character to periodical literatare, in the United States than it ever before possessed. With such a list of writers as our pages exhibit, we may challenge the criticism of Europe. There is no magazine aproad that presents any hing like such an array of eminent writers as James Fennimore Cooper, W. C. Bryant, James K. Paulding, R. H. Dana, H. W. Lengfellow, Nathaniel Hawthorne, J. C. Neal, Honry W. Herbert, James Russell Lowell, Charles Fenno Hoffman, Hou. R. T. Conrad, H. T. Tuckerman, Alfred B. Street, etc.

The most elegant engravings that have ever appeared national sabjects for the pen and pencil, and presented so great a variety of elegant engravi gr that can interest or instruct the render, is seizo npon by the artists in our employ. Among the etyles to be put forth in our new volume, for 1845, we will enumerate the following: American neacy in tht elegence for which these dessgas and prairie scenes. Got up in most magnificent story will also farnish subjects for the embel- style, and representing, from sketches taken from nature, the most beautiful scenery of our western country. Oar Southern views, engraved by the same house, which have become so widely widely popular, will also be continued. The exquisite semale heads engraved y this firm-among which we may instance that of Mrs Stephens which has never been equaled in this country will be further supplied by Messr. R., W. & H., whose failities and talents, in thei line of art, are unrivaled in the world. We may safely say that we have all the best artists employe on Graham., Our portrait gallery occupies the time of several accomplished artists, among whom are Welch & Walter, G. Parker, and others. Portraits of authors is a feature originated by the proprietor of Graham, and successfully carried out. We defy any competition in this branch Sartain's elegant mezzotints. Mr Sartain will farnish us, for the New Volume, a series of his magnificent mezzotints. One will appear in anuary. We need net say to the readers of Graham, that these brillian pictures excel any mezzotiats ever issued in America, and his finest efforts have appeared in this work, flowers colored from nature, 'I'rothfully drawn by an able artist, to take a place in department, got up expressly for the ladies, for the New Volume, the late fa shions, new styles of needle work, and orna mental wors, etc. etc. With letters on topics connected with female interests, will also ferm a feature of the New Volume, comic and humor J C Neal, E A Poe, H H Weld, and others will farnish a series of amosing sketches which will be handsomely illustra ed by Croome or Darley We shall also have hits at fashionable life letters from abroad, written by F.
